Beige Book report.

ADP reports 198,000 new jobs last month

The job market fended off fears of the ongoing budget battle in Washington with business adding 198,000 jobs in February, payroll processor ADP said Wednesday.

Economists' had forecast that ADP would report 173,000 job gains for last month. The labor market continued to show resilience despite the sharp federal cuts that are expected to slow economic growth.