WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 2009 THE GREENVILLE NEWS

Advance tickets available for museum's Two for Two

The Bi-Lo Market exhibit is a child-sized grocery store. FILE / Staff

By Amy Clarke
STAFF WRITER
arclarke@greenvillenews.com

Because of an overwhelming response at August's Two for Two, The Children's Museum of the Upstate is changing the way it handles the special event.

Two for Two offers a two-hour museum visit for $2 on the third Thursday of every month through the end of the year. More than 1,100 people took advantage of the discount program in August.

For the upcoming Two for Two, advance tickets will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

The event will be limited to the first 700 ticket purchasers "to ensure a quality experience for all visitors," said museum director of marketing Shannon Knutti.

Tickets are available for $2 per person at the museum's admissions desk at 300 College St. during normal business hours. If available, remaining tickets will be sold at the door on the night of the event, which will be held 5-7 p.m. Thursday.

Regular admission to the museum is $12. Learn more about The Children's Museum at www.tcmgreenvillesc.org.

YOU CAN GO

- What: Two for Two, special discounted admission event
- When: 5-7 p.m. Thursday
- Where: The Children's Museum of the Upstate, 300 College St.
- Cost: $2 per person
- For more: www.tcmgreenvillesc.org