Agency: Simpler mortgage forms

The government is proposing rules to simplify getting a home mortgage.

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau on Monday unveiled redesigned forms that mortgage borrowers would get after applying for a loan but before closing on the house. The forms would be available three days before closing.