FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

"All J's Catering opens its doors in Oconee County"

All J's Catering opened its doors in mid 2009. This full service catering company is the first licensed and DHEC approved catering company to be located within a residence in Oconee County.

"This is the time for bold endeavors" said the owners Jeff and JoAnn Johnson. With the economy on the rise this company is looking to employ more people in 2010. They are expecting rapid advancement and are excited to play a small role yet important role in the increased employment of the citizens within Oconee County.

All J's Catering is a full service catering company serving Oconee, Pickens, Anderson and Greenville Counties. This company provides meals for corporate meetings, private parties, large or small events, school lunches, fundraisers, weddings and has a gourmet home delivery service.
