

TELEVISION COVERAGE

The Golf Channel will provide coverage. Thursday's and Friday's rounds will be broadcast from 6:30 p.m.-8:30 p.m., while Saturday's and Sunday's rounds are on the air from 7 p.m.-9 p.m.

Golfers practice at the Thornblade Club on Wednesday in preparation for the 2014 BMW Charity Pro-Am presented by SYNNEX Corporation . MYKAL MCELDOWNEY/STAFF

BMW PRO-AM TEES OFF

The BMW Charity Pro-Am presented by Synnex Corp. begins its four-day run on three Upstate golf courses today.

Tour: Web.com Tour

Venues: Thornblade Club, Greer; Green Valley Country Club, Greenville; The Reserve at Lake Keowee, Sunset.

Gate times: Gates open at 7 a.m.

Tickets: Prices start at $10 for a one-day ticket. Online ticket sales are now closed, but you may purchase tickets at the gate to each course. Complimentary daily grounds admission is granted for all active duty, retired, reserve military and veterans, along with their dependents; a valid ID is required for entry. Youths 14 and under who are accompanied by an adult ticket holder are also free.

The course at the Thornblade Club is readied Wednesday for the first day of the tournament. MYKAL MCELDOWNEY/STAFF

ABOUT THE TOURNAMENT

» Competition: 168 Web.com Tour pros paired with 168 amateurs and celebrities. The 10 low-scoring pro-am teams, six low-scoring celebrity pro-am teams and 65 low Web.com Tour pros (and ties) will advance to play Sunday's final round at Thornblade Club. The 10 low-scoring amateurs who play in Sunday's final round have the opportunity to donate funds from the Kentwool Charity Purse to one of the tournament's charitable beneficiaries.

» Course rotation: One-third of the field will play at each course on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Each participant will play one round at each course before the final round is played on Sunday at Thornblade Club.

» Purse: $650,000; winner's share: $177,000

WHAT TO BRING

» Comfortable walking shoes, hat or visor, light jacket, umbrella, sunscreen, sunglasses, binoculars, cash for concessions and credit cards for souvenir merchandise.

» Prohibited items: Cameras, coolers, alcohol, firearms, backpacks. Memorabilia and collectibles for resale purposes are not permitted. All bags subject to search. You will be required to return prohibited items to your vehicle.