SATURDAY, JANUARY 2, 2010

Boating class offered

FOR THE JOURNAL

HARTWELL, Ga. — The Golden Corner Lakes Sail & Power Squadron is offering an America's Boating course.

The course will cover safety equipment, anchoring, trailering, navigation rules and aids, government and local regulations, how to handle emergencies, PWC operations and more.

The class will be offered Monday and Thursday evenings, Feb. 15, 18, 22, 25 and March 1 with the last class being the final exam. Each class begins at 7 p.m. with registration at 6:30 p.m. before the first class. Classes will be offered at the U.A. Army Corps of Engineers Office, Hwy. 29 at the dam in Harwell, Ga.

The cost will be $30 for materials and $35 for a couple sharing a book. Fees can be paid at the first class. Pre-registration s recommended by contacting Gary Powell at 864-654-4188, powellgl@bellsouth.net).

Completion of the class makes attendees eligible for membership in the Sail and Power Squadron.