Christmas parades scheduled, rescheduled

Walhalla is slated to lead the first of five scheduled or rescheduled Christmas parades this week as inclement weather has caused several local parades to be postponed.

The Walhalla Christmas Parade is set for tonight at 5:30 p.m. The parade was originally scheduled for Saturday, but was postponed because of the rainy weather. The Walhalla parade was originally changed to Sunday, but officials announced Monday the parade would be held tonight so that it would not conflict with the Salem Christmas Parade.

The theme for Salem's parade, to be held Sunday, is "Peace on Earth," and all parade participants must line up at 2 p.m. at Tamassee-Salem High Westminster's Christmas parade has been rescheduled for Friday at 4:30 p.m. The parade was originally scheduled for Dec. 5 but was rained out.

Fair Play is scheduled to have its parade Saturday at 1 p.m., which was the original date for the parade.

West Union's parade is still set for Saturday at 5 p.m. The parade will go on "rain or shine" unless a rain date is announced later this week, according to Mayor Linda Oliver.
