Clemson's First Friday parade rolls this week

It marks start of Tigers' home football season

STAFF REPORTS

Central Spirit, a Clemson University student organization, will hold its annual First Friday Parade on campus Sept. 4.

The parade, which includes student floats, bands and other attractions, begins at 6 p.m. on State 93 in front of the President's House. It ends at Riggs Field.

The parade was started in 1973 by Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity as a way for sororities, fraternities, clubs and dorm halls to celebrate the start of the football season.

It is traditionally held on the Friday before Clemson's first home football game.

The Tigers will play Middle Tennessee State University at Clemson Memorial Stadium on Sept. 5, starting at 6 p.m.

STAFF / File

Clemson University student organizations will take to the streets Sept. 4 for their annual First Friday parade.