

Comedy tour coming to Greenville

DONNA ISBELL WALKER
DIWALKER@GREENVILLENEWS.COM

If one comic is funny, then five comics should be able to quintuple the laughs.

That's the idea behind the Comedy Get Down Tour, which comes to Bon Secours Wellness Arena Dec. 12. The lineup features Cedric the Entertainer, Eddie Griffin, D.L. Hughley, George Lopez and Charlie Murphy.

The five comics are known for their work in TV and film, and Hughley and Cedric the Entertainer were part of the Kings of Comedy Tour in the late 1990s.

Cedric also is known for his roles the TV series "The Soul Man" and in "Barbershop" films, including "Barbershop 3," set for release in 2016. Hughley and Lopez have both had their own eponymous TV series, while Griffin is known for stand-up comedy specials and films such as "Undercover Brother."

Murphy has appeared on "Chappelle's Show" and the current series "Black Jesus."

Tickets for the 8 p.m. show go on sale at 10 a.m. Oct. 2. For more info, visit www.ticketmaster.com.

/GETTY IMAGES

Cedric the Entertainer will be part of the Comedy Get Down Tour.