Dive team, fire department complete drills

The Oconee County Dive Team completed rapid entry drills with the Keowee Fire Department on April 30 and May 1, along with the chief of the Pickens County Dive Team. Shown is a diver who just rescued a simulated infant from Lake Keowee. Other team members are performing CPR as if the event was real. The dive team usually trains monthly but more often as the summer approaches.

STEVEN ZAHN | FOR THE JOURNAL