Get your signs ready, Clemson fans.

ESPN's "College Gameday" is coming to Clemson for the showdown against Notre Dame, the network announced late Saturday night, ending at least a week of speculation about its location. Clemson (3-0) and Notre Dame (4-0) are undefeated this year and highly ranked. The game will be televised at 8 p.m. on ABC.

ESPN previously announced that it would broadcast "Sportscenter" live from Clemson on the same day.

"Gameday" last visited Clemson in 2013, when the Tigers suffered a blowout loss to Florida State. The popular Saturday morning show is known for the atmosphere created by fans on campus and the signs they bring. The signs usually support the home team but also make fun of the current opponent or rivals.
