Earthquake rocks area

THE JOURNAL STAFF

Residents in Oconee and Pickens counties were among those who reporting feeling "vibrations" from a 4.1 magnitude earthquake that was felt in three states late Friday night, but there were no injuries or damage reported.

Local officials reported no preliminary damage but were continuing to evaluate the situation.

Visit upstatetoday.com for more details.