

FRIDAY, MAY 6, 2011

Foothills Dance Conservatory students to perform at Brooks Center

Free to public this
Saturday evening

FOR THE JOURNAL

SENECA — The faculty of Foothills Dance Conservatory is proud to announce students who have been accepted into several prestigious summer dance programs around the nation. The dancers can be seen performing at 7 p.m. on May 7 at The Brooks Center at Clemson University. Admission is free.

Alexis Campbell — Pacific Northwest Ballet Summer Program, Merit Scholarship to Next Generation Ballet, Walnut Hill Ballet Summer Program, Boston Ballet Summer Intensive, Harid Summer School (attending) and American Ballet Theatre.

Mallory Lehr will be attending the Atlanta Ballet Summer Intensive.

Pooja Lippert — University of South Carolina Summer Dance Program and Florida

FOR THE JOURNAL

Dancers, from left, are: Abigail Rollins, Mallory Lehr, Aubrey Whisnant, Lacey Vick, Alexis Campbell, Pooja Lippert and Hannah Rollins.

State University Summer Dance program (attending).

Abigail and Hannah Rollins — Early acceptance into Boston Ballet, American Ballet Theatre (both New York and Alabama programs) and Merit Scholarship to Walnut

Hill (attending).

Lacey Vick — American Ballet Theatre, Atlanta Ballet, Early acceptance to Boston Ballet Summer Intensive, Merit Scholarship Next Generation Ballet, Joffery Ballet and Kirov Academy of Ballet (attending).

Aubrey Whisnant — Merit scholarship to Walnut Hill, Merit scholarship to Nutmeg Conservatory, Katsbaan Summer Program (attending) and Boston Ballet Summer Intensive.