

Friends of Jocassee hosting VIP cleanup day Sept. 12

FILE

Lake Jocassee, which is accessed at Devils Fork State Park in Salem, depends on volunteers for its sparkly clean reputation. To register for the VIP cleanup day, visit friendsofjocassee.org.

Registered volunteers are provided with free park admission, a T-shirt and hot dog lunch.

Devils Fork State Park is located at 161 Holcombe Circle in Salem. For more information, visit friendsofjocassee.org or email friendsofjocassee@gmail.com.

The group invites kayakers, divers, boaters, fishermen, campers, hikers and all outdoor lovers to participate in the various facets of this cleanup day. From the depths of the lake to the trails surrounding it, every aspect of Lake Jocassee gets a quick face-lift from the volunteer event.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

In conjunction with the annual state beach and river sweep day, The Friends of Jocassee is sponsoring its annual VIP Day — volunteer, improve, preserve — at Devils Fork State Park on Sept. 12 from 9 a.m.-noon.