Fun in the sun

JESSICA NELMS | THE JOURNAL

A visiting Marine rides a jet ski on Lake Keowee on Tuesday as part of an Honoring Their Service event. A group of around 40 Marines from Camp Lejeune in Jacksonville, N.C., and the Marine Corps' South Carolina Wounded Warrior Regiment are staying with host families at Keowee Key this week for a time of rest and relaxation. Other events scheduled include water skiing, kayaking, fishing, hiking, golf, tennis, archery and more.