Holiday Inn Express to host ribbon cutting

THE JOURNAL STAFF

CLEMSON — The new Clemson Holiday Inn Express in Clemson will host a special ribbon-cutting celebration and Business after Hours, beginning at 5 p.m. Thursday.

Kathleen Swinney, wife of Clemson football coach Dabo Swinney, will be present to cut the ribbon.

The new facility sports rooms that are accented with orange and purple to support the Clemson Tigers. The public is invited and welcome to tour the facility.

For more information contact Ruthie Millar at the Clemson Area Chamber office at (864) 654-1200.