Hot cars sizzle on a warm evening

JOHN C. STEVENSON / Staff

Car buffs took advantage of the spring weather Friday to check out the hundreds of antique and vintage cars at the Blue Ridge Fest Beach Night Cruise-In on West Main Street in Pickens. Organizers were expecting to pass the $1 million mark in contributions, which benefit local charities. The festival continues today with a charity motorcycle ride.

