The Journal 4/29/2010

JESSICA NELMS | THE JOURNAL

Keowee Computer Club helps students pay for college

Keowee Computer Club President Harry Wertheimer, left, Treasurer Len Lowe, second from left, along with Keowee Computer Club Director John Ishler, far right, present a check to Tri-County Technical Foundation Vice President for Economic and Institutional Advancement John Lummus and Manager of Donor Relations and Research Courtney White. The Keowee Computer Club held its last meeting Wednesday and donated its entire treasury to Tri-County Tech to supply four needy students with scholarships for the spring 2011 semester.