Keowee Key hosts college tennis

The tennis program at Keowee Key will host its Collegiate Invitational Tennis Tournament, this Saturday and Sunday.

Keowee Key Fitness and Racquet Center has put together a Collegiate Tournament featuring Division 1 NCAA teams, Clemson and Furman. Four top players from Clemson and four top players from Furman will go head to head in the round robin singles and doubles tournament.

Competition on Saturday runs from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Finals on Sunday will be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Lunch will be available for purchase on site both days. Raffle tickets will be given to every spectator each day for a chance to win tennis prizes in free drawings throughout the event. A Babolat Pure Drive 107 Tennis Racket will be given away as the ultimate prize drawing during the Sunday finals.The event is at Keowee Key Fitness and Racquet Center, 1051 Stamp Creek Road, Salem.
