

JESSICA NELMS | THE JOURNAL

Keowee Key makes book donation to libraries

From right: Keowee Key Marketing Committee Chairman Don Wineman; Edna Turnure, Keowee Key Board Member and Marketing Committee liaison; and Keowee Key Marketing Committee member Bob Bowles present Walhalla Library Branch Manager Stacie Powell with several copies of "Keowee Key, the Origin of a Community" authored by Alice Badenoch. Proceeds of $2,212 from a reprinting of the book — 650 copies were presold — will be donated to the Tamasee DAR School in the author's name. Remaining copies are being donated to libraries and Chambers of Commerce in Oconee and Pickens counties.