

Keowee Key member-guest tourney gets cranked up

Submitted

Thursday marked the first day of the Keowee Key Men's 18-Hole Golf Association member-guest tournament with a full field of 120 players. The tournament will cover three days, with activities for players and their spouses and significant others. The tournament will conclude with a dinner party on Saturday, during which winners will be announced and prizes awarded. There are several individuals who have played in many of the tournaments over the years. Above: Among them is Bob Dunlap, who with his son, Keith, is playing in his 15th tournament. Below: Ray Schmelter, along with his son, Dean, is playing in his 14th tournament in the last 20 years.
