

Keowee River Scarecrow Fest set for Sept. 29-Oct. 1

Staff Reports

Tuesday, September 13, 2011

SENECA — The Keowee River Scarecrow Fest will take place Sept. 29 through Oct. 1. This is an annual event established to build community, enrich lives and empower mentoring of the cultural arts by providing distinctive life experiences in an exceptional lake front venue.

It is the harvest theme that celebrates an eclectic mix of family fun through the whimsical celebration of an American hero — the scarecrow.

All proceeds to benefit the new Foothills Area YMCA.

Keowee River is located off S.C. 130, 6.2 miles north of U.S. 123 at 225 Tee Ben Trail, Seneca.

© 2011 Scripps Newspaper Group — Online