Keowee Sailing Club hosts 25 boats

Keowee Sailing Club hosted 25 boats from five states recently for the Flying Scot District Championship. Weather conditions both days were challenging, with six boats capsizing when a severe weather cell materialized during the second race. Thanks to a quick-thinking race committee and several shoreline volunteers, all were rescued with no serious injuries. The following day winds gusted over 20 knots for an exciting finish to the event.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

