

Tuesday, May 19, 2009

Members recognized for service at annual picnic

Brett McLaughlin/Staff

Friends of Lake Keowee Society honored many of their own at this week's annual picnic at South Cove Park. Members were lauded for service to various FOLKS' programs and administrative chores. FOLKS Executive Director Ben Turetzky told those assembled that the organization will be seeking creative ways to fund ongoing projects now that two federal grants for clean water efforts have expired. For photo copies, click Gotcha @ upstatetoday.com