Music on Main starts today

FOR THE JOURNAL

WESTMINSTER

— Westminster's summer concert series kicks off Thursday with a performance by a gospel group.

The Westminster Chamber of Commerce and the Joyful Noise Entertainment Group present the trio "Echoing Mercy" on Thursday at 7 p.m. at the Westminster Depot as part of the Music On Main summer concert series.

Admission is free, and an offering will be taken for the group.

Contributions of non-perishable food items for Dot's Kitchen will be received.

Music On Main, which will be held each Thursday evening, will be moved to the Westminster Music Hall as it opens in the near future.

Steve Williams, JNEG music consultant, schedules the family-friendly gospel and country music for Music On Main and would like any soloists or groups who wish to perform in the activity to contact him at (864) 723-6656.
