

JESSICA NELMS | STAFF

Oconee Medical Center Vice President of Operations Hunter Kome watches as the new patient tower sign is attached Wednesday afternoon. Hospital officials and staff have been eagerly awaiting the arrival of the building's exterior signage which will give even greater visibility to the building already noted for being the tallest in Seneca.