Oconee Station to host Frontier Encampment

Staff Reports

WALHALLA — Oconee Station State Historic Site will host a Frontier Encampment Saturday. The pubic is invited to travel back in time to the years immediately following the American Revolution when Oconee Station was a frontier outpost.

Visitors will be able to experience what life was like for the frontiersmen of this bygone era. The program will include a variety of period-related activities such as cooking, weaving and black powder demonstrations.

An adult must accompany those 12 and under. The program will be held between 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Oconee Station State Historic Site, off of SC Highway 11, is operated by the South Carolina State Park Service. Park hours are 9 a.m. – 6 p.m. seven days a week. The historic structures are open from 1 p.m. – 6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, with guided tours available.
