nprovements.

Oconee Treasurer extending office hours

THE JOURNAL STAFF

WALHALLA — Start-
ıg Monday, the Oconee
ounty Treasurer's Of-
.ce will be opening ear-
ier and closing later.

County Treasurer Greg Nowell said Thursday that he is extending hours to allow more people the opportunity to come into his office before or after work.

The new hours will be 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Currently, the hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

"Staff and I made the decision to make this change after discussing ways in which we could better serve all Oconee County citizens," Nowell said.

The change, Nowell added, will not cost taxpayers a cent.

Child tests

Unsta