Pickens County Cultural Museum

announces art winners

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

The Pickens County Cultural Commission is pleased to announce that Pickens County Youth Arts 2015 is in full swing. The 930 works of art are on display at the museum through March 26.

This year's Pickens County Cultural Commission Awards include in the high school division: First place to Lillian Kome from Daniel High School for the colored pencil drawing, "Bee-Eaters Fighting;" second Place to Pickens High School's Michelle Giambrone-Roach collectively for the graphite and mixed media drawings, "Untitled (Face Studies)" and "Self Portrait;" third Place honors went to Chemito Bautista from Easley High School for the watercolor, "Farm House;" and an honorable mention award went to Liberty High School's Hunter Moore for the oil pastel, "Charleston Houses."

Museum Choice Certificates in the High School Division were presented to Gabby Bailey, Rosa Kome, Caitlin Peters, and Courtney Tobon from Daniel High; Angie Castillo, Lauren Gambrell, Emily Moss, and Shaneya Ruibal from Easley High; Tyler Chapman, Rebekah Davis, Martha Jacobo, and Courtney Kelly from Liberty High; and Meagan Beauvais, Kristen Blackwood, Desiree Kelly, and Keelie Mlay from Pickens High.

In the middle school division: first place to Dacusville Middle School's Krushi Patel for all of her collective works of "Animal Art;" second Place to Sarah Stewart from Pickens Middle School for the pencil drawings, "Zentangle Elephant" and "Elephant Metamorphosis;" third Place went to Liberty Middle School's Hailey Miles for the pencil drawing, "Peacock." Honorable mentions went to Rhiannon Echols-Leitch from R.H. Gettys Middle School for the colored pencil drawing, "Down The Rabbit Hole," and to Shawn Hamilton from R.C. Edwards Middle school for the mixed media collage, "Dog."

Museum Choice Certificates in the middle school division include Seth Costa, Hannah Finley, and Paisley Ramey from Dacusville Middle School; Adison Culver, Emerald Withers, and the group work of Austin Burkhart, Madison Lackey and Baylee Holder from R. C. Edwards Middle School; Zoe Barnes, Jaydan Burgess and Allison Hunt from R. H. Gettys Middle School; Brianna Aiken, Jordan Connell, and Tia Schofield from Liberty Middle School; Abi Broom, Logan Redding and Tahya Vallery-Ritchie from Pickens Middle School; and Kate Becker representing TEAM Home School of Clemson.

All elementary school students were presented an award of participation by the museum and the participating schools.

Located at the corner of Highway 178 at 307 Johnson Street in Pickens, the museum is open Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m., Thursdays from 9 a.m. until 7:30 p.m. and Saturdays from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

For more information, visit www.VisitPickensCounty.com/Calendar or contact the museum at (864) 898-5963.

"Down The Rabbit Hole"