Removing the rubble

Oconee County Council member Wayne McCall, right, and his brother, Keller, began demolition work to take down the remains of the community clubhouse at Waterside Crossing near Seneca on Monday. The neighborhood's clubhouse was a total loss after it was ravaged by fire early Wednesday morning. McCall also announced Monday that he will run for another term on county council. To read more, turn to page A3.

PHOTOS BY REX BROWN | THE JOURNAL