Rock solid

Forty Marines visited Clemson University on Thursday, where they were given a tour of the weight room, served lunch and given the opportunity to rub Howard's Rock. The Marines are part of the Wounded Warrior program, and spent the week as guests of residents of Keowee Key. PAUL BROWN