Scenes from Seneca's Fourth of July celebration

JOHN HACKWORTH | THE JOURNAL

Little Redd (Albert) Cottle, lead singer of The Tams, takes his music into the crowd Wednesday night at Seneca's Fourth of July celebration.

JOHN HACKWORTH | THE JOURNAL

Candis Cole, left, and Ramey Nix, of Seneca, were up front for The Tams concert Wednesday night at Seneca's Fourth of July celebration.

JOHN HACKWORTH | THE JOURNAL

A couple shags to the music of The Tams at Wednesday night's Fourth of July celebration in Seneca.

Fireworks closed Seneca's annual Fourth of July celebration Wednesday night. An estimated 10,000 or more attended the event and thousands more watched the fireworks from nearby.