Seneca celebrates Marines, veterans

JESSICA NELMS | THE JOURNAL

Marines watch fireworks during the Veteran's Appreciation event held Tuesday evening at Gignilliat Field in Seneca. Forty-one Marines participated in the annual Honoring Their Service event. For more views from the Veteran's Appreciation event, see page A6.

PHOTOS BY JESSICA NELMS | THE JOURNAL

Top left, Marine Clayton Chapman of Walhalla kisses his 9-month-old daughter, Ella Marie, during the Veteran's Appreciation event at Gignilliat Field on Tuesday evening. Top right, 41 Marines entered Gignilliat Field during the start of the Veteran's Appreciation event Tuesday. Bottom photo, Kylie Quigley, 5, shows off her toy bear dressed in military fatigues to Marine Nate Moore during the Veteran's Appreciation event in Seneca.

