

Seneca celebrates the 4th of July in style with Senecafest
