

State of Clemson event on tap

Staff Reports

CLEMSON — The Clemson Area Chamber of Commerce, the city of Clemson and Clemson University will host the sixth State of Clemson event to be held Feb. 20 at the Martin Inn and Conference Center.

The event will begin with registration at 11 a.m., followed by the program at noon.

Clemson Mayor Larry Abernathy and Clemson University President James F. Barker will speak about the current states of the city and university and how they relate to the local business community.

Along with the keynote speakers, the Catherine Smith Award will be presented. This award is given each year to a person who has demonstrated outstanding service to the Clemson Area Chamber and the surrounding community.

The event is open to all Chamber members and the local communities. Cost is $20 for Chamber members and $25 for non-members.

To reserve a seat, call Ruthie Millar at (864) 654-1200 or e-mail ruthie@clemsonchamber.org.
