Student drowns in Lake Jocassee

Kayak capsized Saturday afternoon, body found by rescue officials Sunday

Staff report

The body of a 25-year-old Clemson University student was found Sunday morning after he was lost late Saturday in a kayak accident.

Pickens County Coroner Kandy Kelley identified the drowning victim as Anlin Wang. She said his body was found at 9:10 a.m. Sunday and he was wearing a life vest.

Kelley said Wang was kayaking on Lake Jocasee near Devils Fork State Park when his kayak capsized about 4:30 p.m. Saturday. The cause of death was "fresh water drowning," Kelley said. He was pronounced dead at the scene.

Officials with the South Carolina Department of Natural Resources are investigating the drowning.
