

1/10/17

FILE PHOTO

This rendering shows what Greenville developers dreamed would be their project on the shores of Lake Keowee. Lot owners at the Montelago project submitted a covenant this year that would restrict development to only single-family homes. The restriction appears to have killed Montelago., which gave birth to zoning initiatives in the county.