Tigers celebrate homecoming

PAUL BROWN/STAFF

Clemson University kicked off its homecoming weekend Friday with the 57th annual Tigerama pep rally at Littlejohn Coliseum. Tigerama Tailgate began at 5:30 p.m. on the lawn of the coliseum, featuring live music and activity booths sponsored by student organizations. Above, Madi Dunnett, 3, and brother Aiden, 4, came with their parents, both Clemson alumni, from Indian Land. At bottom left, Tammy Youngblood, from Pickens tries on the tiger look during her first visit to homecoming. The pep rally featured students, players and the Tigers band as well as the crowning of the new homecoming queen, Raegan Campbell McCullough of Iva.