

'BE INSPIRED'

Tiki Hut hosts annual fashion show to raise money for breast cancer

THE JOURNAL STAFF

SENECA — On Saturday, Belk of Seneca hosted the fifth annual "Be Inspired" fashion show at The Tiki Hut Lakeside Grill to benefit Susan G. Komen for the Cure, the largest and best-funded breast cancer organization in the country.

Local breast cancer survivors shared their stories as they modeled Belk fashions along the catwalk, escorted by members of Clemson University's Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. The show also featured guest speakers and local performers. Tickets included a mimosa, brunch on the shores of Lake Keowee and the chance to win a variety of door prizes.

PHOTOS BY REX BROWN | THE JOURNAL

Board professional Dr. Donna Weinbrenner speaks at the fifth annual "Be Inspired" fashion show at The Tiki Hut in Seneca on Saturday. The event raised money for breast cancer research.