Tiki Hut's efforts benefit Safe Harbor

FOR THE JOURNAL

Tiki Hut Italian Night raised $1,334 on Sept. 21 to benefit Safe Harbor of Seneca. From left, are: Darragh Geist, Safe Harbor board nember; Katy Padgett, Tiki Hut marketing manager; and Elisabeth Gadd, Safe Harbor board member. Tiki Hut hosted another Charity Dinner Night on Oct. 19 to support efforts to build a women's shelter in Oconee County. "We are very thankful to the Tiki Hut for their support for Safe Harbor through their Charity Dinner Night," said Julie Meredith, director of volunteers and communication for Safe Harbor.
