World of Energy holiday events draw hundreds

PHOTOS SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

Evan Kreuzberger had her first visit with Santa at the World of Energy.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

SENECA — Recent events at the World of Energy brought out hundreds of children and adults to celebrate the holidays.

The education center's second annual Festival of Trees is on display with more than 20 decorated trees for the public to enjoy through Jan. 3. In conjunction with this display, nearly 300 children and parents lined up to visit with Santa and Mrs. Claus on Dec. 13, while an outstanding crowd came out for Super Tuesday to hear the sounds of Grammy nominated singer and songwriter Shawn Lane.

The community is encourage to come out and view the trees and vote on their favorite tree. The decorator of tree with the most votes will receive a $1,000 grant to donate to a charity of choice.

Trees are on display Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday from noon to 5 p.m.

For more information, visit www.duke-energy.com/worldofenergy or call (864) 873-4600.