World of Energy hosts Safe Kids Day

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

The World of Energy education center recently partnered with the Safe Kids Coalition to host Safe Kids Day for second graders from Tamassee-Salem Elementary, Holly Springs Elementary and Oconee Christian Academy. Students learned about electrical safety, safety at home, fire prevention and bike safety. Each student also received a fitted bike helmet. Pictured is volunteer Ken Pruitt teaching bike safety.