World of Energy to host student art show

FOR THE JOURNAL

SENECA — The World of Energy is partnering with the School Districts of Oconee and Pickens Counties to showcase the artwork of local students and teachers through Feb. 2. The show will feature both student and teacher works of art in 2D and 3D encompassing a wide variety of styles and mediums. The show gives students a unique opportunity to view artwork created by their teachers.

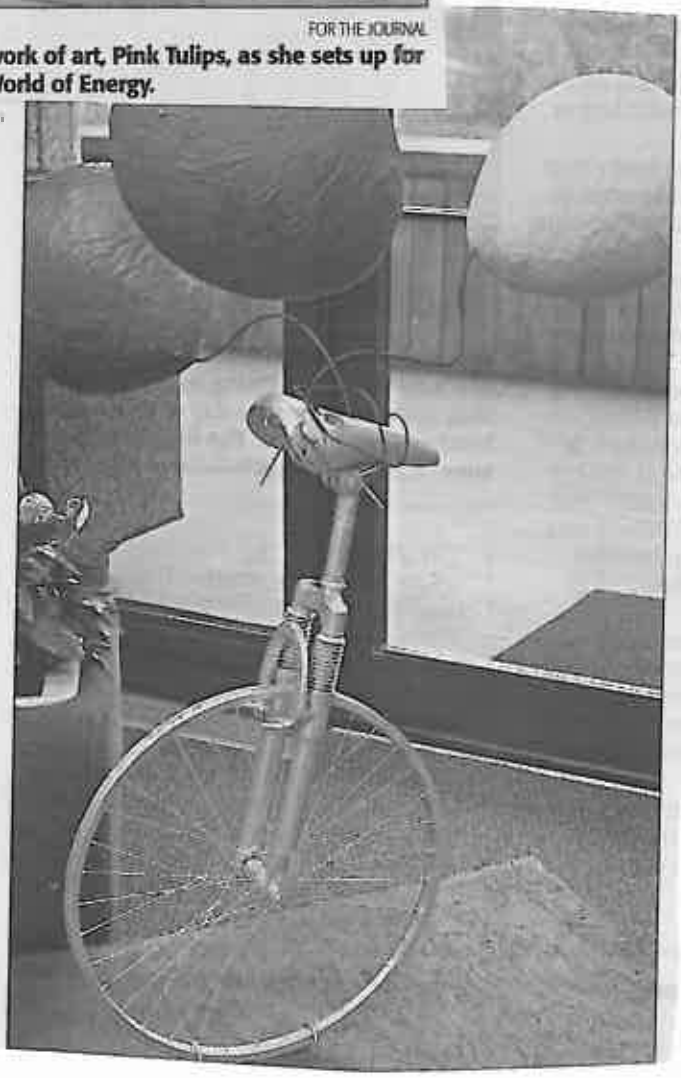

The World of Energy hosted an opening reception to honor teachers and students on Thursday, Jan. 10 from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the World of Energy located at 7812 Rochester Highway, Seneca. The show will remain on display until Feb. 2 and will be open during normal business hours. The World of Energy is open Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturdays from noon to 5 p.m.

For more information or directions to the World of Energy, call (864) 873-4600.

FOR THE JOURNAL

Walhalla art teacher Suzanne Glenn hangs her own work of art, Pink Tulips, as she sets up for this year's annual student-teacher art exhibit at the World of Energy.

FOR THE JOURNAL

The bicycle art was created by Seneca High School art student Noah Wigington. He used objects he found, wire and paper mache´ to create this artwork. You can see these and more at the World of Energy's exhibit.
