

Artists celebrate trades at Clemson Festival of Arts

PHOTOS SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

On Saturday, many of the area's artists gathered at the seventh annual Clemson Festival of Arts to celebrate their trades. At the Art in Action tents, artists demonstrated various media, from ceramics and painting to scrapbook quilting and jewelry making. Children, family and friends enjoyed an artful Saturday at Catherine Smith Plaza and Jaycee Park in Clemson. A Character Parade kicked off the festivities, followed by events such as a community art project, sidewalk chalk, kids art park, an outdoor art gallery, food and music.

