

Daniel band to perform at World of Energy

THE JOURNAL STAFF

SENECA — Duke Energy's World of Energy at Oconee Nuclear Station will host an outdoor concert featuring the Daniel High School band on the shores of Lake Keowee on Thursday.

The concert will begin at 7 p.m. and is free and open to the public.

The band will perform the music of Henry Mancini, John Williams, Big Bad Voodoo Daddy and Gloria Estefan and the Miami Sound

Machine. In preparation for the total solar eclipse occurring Aug. 21, students will add a cosmic touch by playing the symphonic suite from "Star Wars: The Force Awakens."

Visitors are encouraged to bring a lawn chair or blanket and a picnic meal. Oconee Nuclear Station's United Way Committee will sell snow cones. Parking is available at the World of Energy. In the event of inclement weather, the concert will be held at 7 p.m. May 12.

FRIDAY, MAY 5, 2017

The Daniel High School band will perform at Duke Energy's World of Energy next week.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

