Golden Corner Lakes Sail & Power Squadron conducts life jacket training

The Golden Corner Lakes Sail & Power Squadron conducted training for youths on the proper use and fit of life jackets at the Western Carolina Sailing Club, Lake Hartwell, in June. Ten students attended, and the squadron donated 15 life vests for youth training. The squadron is dedicated to boating safety and community service. Pictured, from left, are Brian Hackley and Ron Osburn of the squadron, Junie Gruskin, special assistant, and Patrick Hopp and Melissa Kaisner of the WCSC. For more information about the Golden Corner Lakes Sail & Power Squadron, visit gclsaps.com.
