

Newest hybrid vehicles on display at World of Energy

THE JOURNAL STAFF

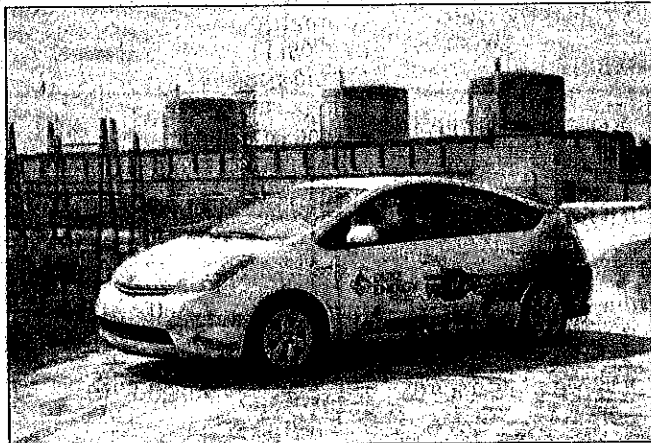

SENECA — Visitors will be able to touch, feel and sit in the cockpit of the newest all-electric and plug-in hybrid cars during a National Drive Electric Week event at the World of Energy from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Tuesday.

Vehicles on display will include Tesla, BMW and Chevrolet, as well as Duke Energy's Via eTrux and others.

"This free event is open to the public as part of the education center's Super Tuesday programs held throughout the year," Duke Energy communications consultant Mikayla Kreuzberger said.

National Drive Electric Week, planned for next week, is a nationwide celebration to heighten awareness of the widespread availability of plug-in vehicles and highlight the benefits of all-electric and plug-in hybrid-electric cars, trucks and motorcycles.

"Are you considering going electric? Come talk to owners who have successfully done so," Kreuzberger said. "Be sure to visit the National Drive Electric Week website and register for the World of Energy event on (Tuesday) through the events tab."

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

The World of Energy will have the newest electric vehicles on display on Tuesday during its National Drive Electric Week.

The World of Energy welcomes visitors to bring their personal electric vehicles to the event. Food and drinks will be available.

The World of Energy's next Super Tuesday program, featuring live entertainment, is planned for 10 a.m. on Dec. 12. For more information, call (864) 873-4600.