

Keowee Key Boating Association donates to Tamassee DAR School

Keowee Key Boating Association representatives present a check to Tamassee DAR School CEO Lori Bailey. Pictured, from left, are Bailey, Beverly Lusk, Terry Dietz and president Judd Lusk.

SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL

The Keowee Key Boating Association donated $2,000 to the Tamassee DAR Children's Fund. The gift, which was accepted by Tamassee DAR School CEO Lori Bailey, represents the fundraising proceeds from the Keowee Key Boating Association's 2017 Poker Run.

The Tamassee DAR School Children's Fund is non-restricted donations, which provides food, shelter, clothing, educational needs, doctor/dental care, heat, water, electricity, insurance, professional staff and many other operational needs that help support our children.

Tamassee DAR School is a private 501(c)(3) non-profit children's home and family service organization offering multi-faceted programs to serve children and families in crisis.