

Summer's last stand

With a high of 83 degrees on Monday, many took to the lakes to celebrate the unofficial end of summer, including Roy James, who was watching the action while he fished at South Cove County Park. Lake days may be coming to an end soon as evening temperatures dip. For the full forecast, see page A2.

SAVANNAH BLAKE | THE JOURNAL